During the photo shoot, Kirsten's skill and creativity shone through. She effortlessly guided us through various poses and settings, all while maintaining a calm and patient demeanour.

Kirsten's professionalism extended beyond the shoot itself. The turnaround time for receiving our edited photos was surprisingly quick, and the quality of her work left us in awe. "Had the most magical experience during our newborn shoot. Kirsten is absolutely amazing at what she does. From the moment we walked in, we were looked after and made [to feel] comfortable and at ease. Kirsten and Lynley were so kind, patient and caring and made our 1st trip out with our newborn easy. How they handled my baby girl with so much love, was so special for us. Not to even mention how amazing the photos turned out, just amazing. Highly recommend !!!"
